

A Thousand Years As One Day

2Peter 3:8-9 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

Through this verse, time has no relevance "under the sun". Outside of space-time one day and a thousand years are meaningless because time does not exist.

Interesting that scripture states that all should come to repentance. Since repentance is of the earth, then we can assume that time has no bearing on salvation because of the promise and all should come to repentance. Its apparent a soul would have to experience "earth" until the promise is fulfilled, because time according this scripture is meaningless on this earth. Some men count slackness because of their lack of understanding.

Psalms 90:4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

The past is gone and has no bearing on the present. In the spirit world-heavens, only the present exists. Good reason to check your ego at the door.

Your sins are forgiven. The focus then is not on the sin but how are you living your life. How much "distance" are you putting between your neighbor, the Holy Spirit, Jesus, and God? Negative things are of the earth.

Focus on the goodness like Christ, and since goodness can only come from and through Christ, it is only in your decision to live your current life in that goodness and love.

Awareness is the key. If you can not find the love on the outside, its because its hidden on the inside. Look past the flesh just as Jesus did.

Mark 1:15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.
